A Series of Twelve Energy Transmissions

Message Ten

The time of En-Lionment: Claiming Your Divine Purpose Through Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa & Angelic Oracle Kira Raa Delivered at the TOSA Light Portal, August 5, 2006

Yes! We are here, and good afternoon. It is with glorious consciousness that we come forward to you today, in an effort to be able to connect, and to offer divine greetings. Divine hello, divine love, divine sharing, divine opportunity indeed. You are in a most wondrous connection of loving and divine beginnings.

You ask, “Why do you talk to us about beginnings now?”

Great Beginnings and Divine Endings

Because indeed you are at a time of great beginnings, are you not? Many of you are already seeing that you are in the abundant beginning, and when there is the beginning, you must allow yourself the opportunity to release all that is an ending.

For if you try to hold onto an ending while you are in the beginning, you will muddle, hmm, we love this word. You will muddle the two together and in the muddling what do you make? You make mud. And in the mud you leave tracks, do you not? So in leaving muddy tracks of what should be gone, you muddy the beginning of what is...what is indeed!

Dearest children of this divine planet that you call Earth, know that at this time now, you are in a great new cycle. This cycle has already unveiled itself, the energy is building, it is not waning, it is very much a waxing energy and it will continue to wax very, very fervently over the next 8 months.

(Zadkiel requests a drink of water).

You should all be drinking water, should you not? It is more than just symbolic that this body is running so dry. (referring to Kira Raa) Are you not all saying “Can’t get enough water these days, seems like I’m dry all the time, what is going on?”

Understanding the Cycle of the Lion

Indeed, in this powerful cycle that you are in, this cycle is indeed, as we have mentioned before, the cycle of the Lion. Within the cycle of the Lion, there is indeed more than the roar that you will hear. There is the strength of the Lion, there is the balance of the Lion, there is the male and the female, there is all of the energies that come forward. Does a Lion not have claws too? Does a Lion not have great teeth? And yet does a Lion not have the wisdom to be able to understand that all of these components, when brought together are able to be offered in a most wondrous way?

It is important for you to recognize that many challenges come with new beginnings, do they not?

You all enjoy the butterfly, do you not? You see the beautiful butterfly, look at it fly by, my oh my. Yet just a moment ago the butterfly was trying to break free of a barrier that very felt much like it’s own burial chamber, did it not? And in that burial chamber was there not indeed an ending of what you would call the caterpillar?

It is more than just a glorious transformation. There is a moment that can be perceived as discomfort. This moment of perceived discomfort can only come from your own separation of the recognition, the owning, the knowing, the being, and the absolute embrace of your own eternal being-ness.

Dearest Ones, when you are in your own eternal being-ness, when you are in your opportunity of great and galactic reunion, resurrection, understanding and being, there can not be turmoil.

You know that you are limitless and the expansion of the soul in this realm is only limited by the perception of your understanding of what it is to grow, to expand, to be.

When we give ourselves in this realm the opportunity to think is when we limit.

Connecting with Divine Empowerment

When you connect to your consciousness, you expand. How do you perceive what is in front of you now? How are you going through the new beginnings? Are you in the muddle, or are you in the clarity of the recognition of the divine expansion that is before you now?

This is not the time to be timid! So timid so many are. Oh, perhaps I'll stick my foot in the water for a moment, but only on the weekend for a half an hour between 12 and 12:30, that would be convenient. (much laughter)

Yes! It is important for you to recognize that within timid-ness, a Lion preys. The Lion will prey and so you are either in the energy of the Lion, or available to be part of the prey. And all choices are of course wondrous, as all choices are indeed abundant on the planet now.

This cycle of the Lion will culminate within approximately 5.34 years.

This cycle is most profound and this cycle will indeed end like a lamb as it has come in like a Lion. It is in the unification of the Lion and the Lamb that the Eagle will soar and the Condor will join and together they shall form the Great Serpent of Understanding coming forward again to Galactic reunification. You all say what divine riddles you offer to us today, and your DNA knows exactly what we are offering.

It is imperative, Dearest children, that you are at the time of great Divine Empowerment. You must empower yourselves. To continue the great empowerment, it is absolutely imperative for you to become more aligned with the galactic crystalline DNA within your stranding and that you align with the beginnings that are before you now.

Experiencing Divine Empowerment

Take a moment. Bring your hand to your heart. Hold the hand of one you love if you so wish, and together feel. You may even wish to close your eyes and breathe.

Begin this process by asking yourself: What in my life is beginning right now?

Whatever was the first thing that came forward for you is indeed the greatest gift before you at this time. Trust what you are hearing. Ask again, What in my life is beginning right now, and trust what you are hearing.

Know that all beginnings coming forward in this moment right now are divine beginnings.

These divine beginnings are being given the Lion energy, and so, in order to be aligned with them, A-Lioned with them, you must empower the Lion energy. If you take the energy of the timid-ness, if you take the energy of the Lamb, prematurely into the beginning now, it will not manifest because the energy can not support that manifestation at this time.

You have a choice. How do you wish to bring forth this beginning? As a Lion? Then you are committed to bringing it forth. And if, Dearest children, the energy of the lamb comes forward for you, then it is verification that this beginning needs to have another beginning. Perhaps not now, perhaps later.

As you are in the time now of divine beginnings, it is important for you to also pay attention. Once again now, take one hand, and you must do this individually, one hand to your solar plexus and one hand to your heart. You can close eyes only if you wish.

Take in deep breath. What in my life is ending now?

What is the first thing that you just knew? Honor the first knowing. Honor the intuition, honor your truth, you have great strength. Great strength. Honor it.

*What is my life is ending now and how do you wish to honor that energy?
Is this ending the energy of the Lion, or a Lamb?*

Divine Balance and “En-Lionment”

Pay attention. Know that with all beginnings, there are endings. This is the Divine balance. Dearest children, this is not a time of sadness, indeed it is a time of great rejoicing, it is not? Yes. The enlightenment, or as we are enjoying, the En-lionment, is here! Yes.!

Are you A-lioned with the En-lionment?

Oh what fun we have now, yes! Offer yourself this great gift. Relax and breathe.

Dearest, dearest, dearest Ones, your planet will no longer wait for you, indeed you know this. The vibratory rates have already once again escalated very, very much. This particular weekend offers a powerful culmination, that is also galactically aligned with 7 different galaxies, along with this galaxy, forming the 8th.

You have indeed entered a most powerful time, a most powerful time.

If you are not clear on your beginnings, if you are not clear on your endings, get clear! Why are you waiting? That’s just a muddle. Now some people enjoy mud and that is quite ok. If you choose to say I can not get clear, getting clear is too painful, I do not wish to see the clarity that is in front of me, I must go into the mud, then we encourage you to go in well. Go in very deep. Take a mud bath! Swim around. Whatever must be.

Dearest children, pay attention to those around you, because many around you will be in mud baths over the next few weeks...many of your children, your friends, and your relatives. Dearest, dearest Ones, in your clarity, in your divine clarity, in your gracious connection to all that is, the Lion energy is you. It is not separate from you, nor is the lamb. Many now are ready to be the Lamb and in the balance, all is found.

Ask yourselves, what in my life will change as I accept this energy? What in my life would not change if I ignore it? Of course, this is all your choice, Dearest Ones, we only bring you that which you have asked us to bring. We do not interfere in your process. We simply offer you the gift of recognition. Perhaps a lifting, to say yes, I see, I know, it is time, all is indeed well.

Discovering your Divine Purpose: Offering the Greatest Gift to Humanity

Your purpose, so many say what is my purpose, why am I here? So many come forward and say Eureka I have found my purpose, it is to put this in this! Oh very good, ok. Very good. Precious.

Dearest children, your divine purpose, your collective purpose, is to emanate the preciousness of a sacred heart.

From a crystalline center emanating from the Divine Light of Being-ness, so powerfully, so brightly, that all around you are free to be exactly as they need to be. That is your purpose.

How you manifest that purpose is up to you.
How you choose to move forward in that purpose is beautiful.
It is in perfection, and in divine wonderment.

We are indeed here simply because so many will come running to you in your presence. They see you and say “I want you to tell me more, tell me more, what do you know, tell me what you know!”

Dearest children, offer them the greatest gift you can offer them. Place your hands on their shoulders, look them straight in the eyes and say:

“What I know is that you are a divine being of light, that you are whole and magnificent and I am honored to say hello to you.”

That is what you know, and put your hands on their shoulders and look them in the eye, because this is the message, this is the empowerment message.

It is only the ego that wishes to say “I know this, or I know that”...and the ego can know a lot, can it not? The ego knows that 2 + 2 in this world should equal 4. Wow. So, what do you know?

What do you know? Understand what you know.

Understand that you can not revoke the immutable truth of your divine essence.

Of your absolute cosmic connection, of your great heart that is expanding ten-fold and ready to expand ten-fold more.

Trust yourself that all that is happening around you, with you, in you, for you, is in divine perfection now. Even when your little boxes, (reference to television), tell you to be scared. Even when your papers tell you to be scared. Even when your friend say “Why aren’t you scared?” Yes.

It is in that moment that you put your hands on their shoulders, you look them in the eyes and you say “I am not scared because I know you are a divine being of wondrous light and you are whole, and I am honored to share this moment with you now.”

This Dearest children, is the greatest gift that we can offer you today.

You say Oh Zadkiel, this sounds so simple, we say then why aren’t you doing it? Yes. You see Dear Ones, as you have entered this phase of the Lion, as you have entered this time of great beginnings. Great, great, great beginnings, and many will say this was not a good beginning, and that they are not enjoying this beginning.

Remember that all beginnings offer an opportunity for greater expansion. All realms are open to this expansionary process now. You are at the time of great reunification and expansion, what do you choose to do with it? How do you choose to do it? What is still regulating your choices, hmm? We love that question!

Choices and Clarity

OK. Place both hands back your solar plexus; both hands. This is an important solar plexus question. Take in a deep breath. Remember you’re going to trust the first response you get.

What is regulating my choices now?

Do not be upset with yourself if you do not enjoy what you first heard. Honor whatever you heard because this is a gift.

No matter what is regulating your choices now, your absolute awareness of this core center offers you the gift to move even greater into depth and clarity. As you all know, many make their choices from fear and yet many can choose to make their choices from love. Choose to make their choices from joy. Choose to make their choices independent of the thoughts of others.

Many of you have asked us often, oh Dearest Archangelic Realm, what is this thing you call sin, and you all know our answer. The only sin is to interfere with the path of another if you must use this word sin. And, to let another interfere with your own path.

The words of others, are the words of others! What a treat! What a delight! Watch them, love them, enjoy this expression.

Your throat chakra, take a hand to throat chakra if you wish. Yes. This is the truth chakra and it is at the time of great ascension. Let all of your words speak divine truth. Let all of your words offer loving reassurance, and when you know not what to say, remember, put your hand to your throat and you will always know.

Before you speak the word that would harm another out of lack of consciousness, bring your hand to your throat and then bring your hands to their shoulders and offer them the one thing that you do know. (see process above)

How Can You Heal the Planet?

So many ask us now, how can we heal ourselves, how can we heal the planet, oh my goodness, there is so much terror, what is happening on the planet right now?

We say Dearest children, you are at the time of a new cycle, many new beginnings...and many endings. Many. Offer yourself this great gift of truth. The more you speak your truth, the more that you consciously bring your energies to every word that comes out of your mouth, every word, the greater service you offer. Yet Dearest children, your energy will always betray your words, hmm. Yes. It is your energy, it is your heart, these are the true words, are they not? This is what is seen beyond what is heard.

Learn to pay attention more, to not only those around you, to those you walk by. You are all meeting. Many of the Atlanteans from the 2nd cycle of your own existence of Light refracting from Light have woken up to the recognition that we are at the time that caused a great rapid escalation in energy before, and that this energy must be truly, knowingly, consciously, lovingly and most precious worked with.

What do we mean by that? We mean that this energy demands your attention. It is indeed a fierce energy and it demands your attention. It will stir up much, like a big soup. Yes! You'll need a ladle, hmm, many. It will stir up much. It will stir up what is left of that which is attached to density, and in the attachment to density, the recognition that you are at the time of the Lion energy will force you to be clear, even if you thought you were, it will ask you to re-up on your clarity indeed. Yes. Breathe in deep.

When someone comes to you and says I know this, I know that, I'm an expert at this, I'm an expert at that, trust me, hmm, put your hands on their shoulders, look them in the eyes and you know your response. And when they look at you even more and they say "Oh, you're crazy", you can say "good thing". Yes!

In the preciousness of you, in the love that you are, in the gift that you are, you give to many. Let them receive more. Let them receive more.

We wish for you to remember in the time of Divine Empowerment, your answers are always within. You already know the answers. Let yourself empower that which you know, and what do you know?

That everyone, every being, every essence, every beetle, every little bug, every tree, is a divine precious being of light, whole and magnificent and honored to share this time with you. We touch all of your shoulders. We offer all of you a divine gift, a simple message. Trust what your soul is sharing. Listen.

In trusting what you already know, all is always well. Yes!

Questions from the Community

We will take questions. Hello.

Q: Hello. Could you please help me to anchor in the energy of unconditional love?

Dearest child, what a powerful question, so many ask this question, what is unconditional love, how can we anchor unconditional love? Dearest child, you must remember this, in order to anchor in unconditional love in this world of density, it begins always with the self loving the self. The best way, that we can offer you in this world as it is right now, is truly to get a gazing mirror. Stand in front of the gazing mirror and go deep into the portals of your own eyes. As you go deep into the portals of your own eyes, breathe in ever deeper, keeping your hands at the heart center and exhale more, inhale more, exhale more and do that until you feel the essence of your own soul in front of you. Do not say I Love You, let it be felt. It is not the word that will give you unconditional love, it is the divine connection with your own soul that will give you that gift. Many blessings.

Q: If we use breath can we totally bring ourselves into full alignment with consciousness?

Dearest child, but of course! That is a declaration, not a question! Yes! It is with disciplined consciousness, however, and we wish to add that this wondrous gift of breath is yours, every moment, every second, every millisecond that you are on this planet filled with oxygen. When your soul energy is the primary available energy, from which everything that you do, then every breath is consciousness and it does not demand any form of discipline or deeper recognition.

Q: My soul name was just revealed to me and I was wondering if you could explain more about what a soul name is in general and then if you have any information for me?

Dearest child, we hear your question behind your question! And we will answer that too. Many ask us for their soul name and yet so many say, how is that different from a spirit name, or a spiritual name. Soul names carry energy. They are an energy signature and so often times when you ask for that which you consider to be your soul name, it is because you are ready to accept an energy signature that emanates the pure essence of you.

You in the capital YOU and in that sonic vibration of your soul signature, great expansionary experiences become present for you, and so for many. It is imperative they do not connect with their soul name until truly they are ready to experience rapid expansion in a very quick manner! Rapid expansion for many is not so comfortable. Imagine if your stretch pants were too tight overnight. Yes. This is not so comfortable. You want another pair! And the store may be closed that day, uh oh.

It is imperative that you accept rapid expansion and understanding and so this is the gift of when the soul energy, the soul signature comes forward, it means that your agreement, you have said yes, I am ready now for ever greater rapid expansion. Dearest child, your name, for you, carries the soul signature of all you have ever been, as do all carry that soul signature of wholeness, of all that you have ever been. In the claiming of the soul name, you uncover a pathway strewn with golden energy that will help you find and claim wholeness in all that you do. Many blessings.

The Benevolent One wish to say Hello, so we must stop taking questions now. Thank you! Dearest children, before we go, we simply wish for you to hear this, you are either a Lion or a Lamb and either is perfect. All choices before you now will unfold effortlessly, simply pay attention. Gift yourself with knowing.

The Benevolent Ones Speak:

Hello. Hello. Yes. We come to you with great recognition. We see spirals of energy emanations and crystalline connection coming in and being present. Yes. Hello. Yes. Hello. Our only purpose in being here is to shower the gift of DNA re-connection.

Your skies open wide, many see and many choose not to and in this process, we come forward. Thank you for holding the space of presence for so many. Thank you for helping us to reconnect within this cycle of abundant connection.

We speak only Divine love and recognition. We are simply here as an energy presence walking among you. You already feel us. Yes. Hello. Hello. We try not to offer words to interfere with our Hello.

Do not be afraid of this time in your world. Celebrate often. Dearest children, no one can ever die. Remember this.
